

The Picture Book of the Masters and Mistresses of the Livery Companies of the City of London

November 2018

Alderman Peter Estlin
The Lord Mayor

Lindy Estlin
The Lady Mayoress

I am delighted to write the introduction to this exceptionally useful booklet. After a year as Sheriff in 2016-17 followed immediately by a year as Master of the International Bankers in 2017-18 and now starting a year as the 691st Lord Mayor, I can assure you this document is a most useful, well-thumbed memory jogger and networking tool.

The Livery movement underpins the success of our City, and indeed of our nation. In the 21st Century, as we face accelerating change and embrace new opportunities, I feel the importance of collaborating and working together to maintain our core values and standards, both in our individual trades and professions, and collectively as a City, are more paramount than ever. Our support for education, for apprenticeships and for fair access to these is fundamental in ensuring we remain a leading City in the world.

My mayoral theme is “Shaping Tomorrow’s City Today”, focusing on the technological innovation driving our economy, the talent and digitally skilled workforce needed to deliver this, as well as the need to ensure we are an inclusive society, creating opportunity for all.

Throughout our year we will build close friendships as we work together to support this wider community and highlight the strength, skills and opportunities of our Great City. I am sure we will have fun, enjoy fellowship and achieve a great deal in terms of fundraising whilst promoting our Livery movement.

Alderman Peter Estlin
The Rt Hon The Lord Mayor

Anne Somers
Chairman
Picture Book Committee

Having canvassed the opinion of many Masters and Mistresses this summer, we have decided to consolidate the Picture Books into one volume, which we hope you will find more useful during your year. As Masters transition throughout the year, regular updates are posted on www.liverycompanies.london

We are indebted to Piers Nicholson for starting the picture book back in 2011 and thank him for all his hard work updating the printed books and the websites until his retirement this summer. His initiative will continue, now run by the Picture Book Committee.

We can be contacted at info@liverycompanies.net

We are most grateful to the City Livery Club for their support and sponsorship of this printed book.
