

Masters Picture Book no.6 – June 2015

Introduction by the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor of London

Ald. Dr. Andrew Parmley

Ald. Alan Yarrow

Fiona Adler

I am very pleased to welcome this sixth edition of the Masters Picture Book, which has proved so useful to me, to the Lady Mayoress and to very many of the Masters of Livery Companies during their term of office. It has recently been joined by the Mistresses and Consorts Picture Book, the second edition of which will be published concurrently with this. I commend the initiative three years ago which has produced these publications.

The Livery Companies and the City, work to make London a better place in which to live, and our country a better place for all its people but I am particularly proud of our achievements in education, including the many schools up and down the country which have been founded, supported, and encouraged by Livery Companies. There are many new educational achievements to be justly proud of, such as the Tower Hamlets Academy, jointly sponsored by KPMG and the Corporation of London, which has been rated the best in the country.

How to use the liverycompanies.com website

The Masters Picture Book no. 6 is published to coincide with the Ironbridge weekend. The next edition will be published in November 2015 to coincide with the Lord Mayor's Address to the Master and Clerks

There is an online copy of Masters Picture Book 6 on our website which is at www.liverycompanies.com. It is shown in two versions, a browser version and a print version, so you can access it at any time.

Every month, as soon as possible after the 1st of the month, an updated version is posted on the website. Just click on the blue Masters Picture Book tab for the link.

We make every effort to keep the Masters Picture Book and the website as accurate and up-to-date as possible. But if you notice anything which is not correct, please send us an email at info@liverycompanies.com

Please help us to keep YOUR Company's details right up-to-date

Please tell your successor about the Masters Picture Book and the liverycompanies.com website.

And suggest that they send their picture to info@liverycompanies.com well in advance of their installation date.

That way, they will not have a note "Awaiting picture" in our monthly updates, and this will help everyone else who consults the website.

We would much appreciate your help in this.
