Masters Picture Book no. 11 updated to 31st December 2017

An initiative of the Tylers and Bricklayers Company

Ald. Tim Hailes, Sheriff

Ald. Charles Bowman, Lord Mayor

Neil Redcliffe, Sheriff

Introduction by Alderman Charles Bowman, Lord Mayor

This Masters' Picture Book was the inspired idea of Piers Nicholson, Past Master Tyler and Bricklayer. A current copy is never far from my finger tips and I can safely say that few books are more frequently consulted. This booklet is an invaluable resource which supports effective communication within the Livery movement - an important principle that underpins trusted relationships.

As I said in Common Hall back in September, as a nation, we live in interesting times. We enter this period of critical Brexit negotiation with the Edelman Trust Barometer of 2017 reporting the largest ever decline in trust across many institutions including business. There is much to be done to restore this trust and 'The Business of Trust' will be at the centre the mayoralty next year.

I look forward to meeting you during the year ahead and providing support for the Livery and the current initiatives underway. The near one thousand years of history of the livery movement, its stability, its adaptability and its central core of charitable endeavour is a strong weapon in the City's trust armoury.

This website is kindly sponsored by The Cook and The Butler Event Company who are caterers at the City's finest venues, and are resident caterers at The Guildhall Club & HQS Wellington. "We are delighted to support the Masters Picture Book and the Mistresses and Consorts Picture Book with their associated websites - two useful guides to promote better understanding in the Masters Year."
