Mistresses and Consorts Picture Book no 5a

An initiative of the Tylers and Bricklayers Company

31 December 2016

I am delighted to introduce this 5th edition of the Mistresses and Consorts Picture Book which I know will prove of great value to all of us. I shall look forward to meeting you all in the year ahead.

One of my lifelong passions has been studying how people communicate effectively. Over the years, in supporting my husband, I have been Mistress of three companies (Parish Clerks, Musicians and Glass Sellers) and in my own right, became a Liveryman of the Worshipful Company of Information Technologists in 2008 and was honoured recently to have been elected their Junior Warden for the ensuing year. So I have had ample opportunity to experience how people communicate in the City of London. I have followed with much interest the development of the Mistresses and Consorts Picture Book since it started in the summer of 2014.

Mistresses and Consorts are playing a more important part in the life of the City of London than ever before, so the development of the Picture Book is very timely, and there is no doubt that it promotes more effective communication.

My immediate predecessor, Juliet Mountevans, was very pleased when you suggested the idea that there should be a Meet the Lady Mayoress party on the same day as the Lord Mayor's address to the Livery. I came to that party, and was very impressed with the value it gave to those participating.

My other great passion, shared with my husband, is music, so this year our three appeal charities are The London Symphony Orchestra Discovery Programme, Music in Hospitals and St Paul's Cathedral Foundation, and I do hope you will be able to support them during my year as Lady Mayoress.

With best wishes

Wendy Parmley
