

Masters Picture Book No. 4, May 2014

The Energy to Transform Lives

I am delighted to provide the introduction to this the summer 2014 edition of The Masters' Picture Book. I am just past the halfway mark in my Mayoralty and so I know almost all of you personally. Thank you for your support to me, my Consort and the Sheriffs and their Ladies. The picture above shows Sheriff and Aldermen Sir Paul Judge and Sheriff Adrian Waddingham flanking myself outside Mansion House as we neared the end of one of the traditional events, the Whittington Walk from the Whittington Hospital to Mansion House accompanied by most of the mayors of the 32 London boroughs. We provided a colourful procession on a Sunday morning, resplendent in our red gowns and chains worn of course by every Mayor, and the 6 ½ miles passed very easily aided by a coffee stop at Islington Town Hall.

The City of London has a vibrant community and the livery movement is at its heart. While we can all see and experience the major civic moments with the associated splendid ceremonial, it is the continuous commitment to helping to build a better world for London's citizens that has always been the hallmark of the livery movement. Dick Whittington, himself a Mercer, embodies this for mediaeval times and provides a line which thrives in all livery companies today in their different charity approaches and focuses. Every time I hear of the charitable support given by each company, whether this is focused on their trade or profession, education (which is a very substantial element) or in different directions I never cease to be amazed. The City is a force for good, providing the energy to transform lives and you are its leaders.

Fiona Woolf

The Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Alderman Fiona Woolf CBE

www.liverycompanies.com gives a complete list of all the London livery companies, with the names of their Masters and Clerks, and with one-click links to their websites, pictures of the Master and the Master's badge, and to detailed maps to show the location of all the livery halls.

An initiative of the Tylers and Bricklayers Company

Welcome to this 4th edition of the Masters Picture Book. It will be distributed free to all Masters at the Ironbridge weekend, and to all the Clerks and Senior Wardens of all the livery companies.

It is drawn from the pictures on the www.liverycompanies.com website. We aim to put the pictures of new Masters on the website within a few days of their installation, and every month, we publish an update of this booklet as a pdf on the website. And, in November, we will produce another hard copy edition, which will similarly be distributed to Masters and Clerks.

Websites like liverycompanies.com don't just happen – they need someone to have the idea and who can also command the resources to make it happen. I was lucky when I became Master of the Tylers and Bricklayers in 2011. I found it difficult to remember all the new faces I encountered, and I had a web design company which could turn the idea into reality.

Since then, the website has had a lot of help, particularly from Clerks of the various companies, and importantly from the generous sponsorship of Mark Grove of The Cook and The Butler Ltd. And we have been grateful for the support of the Lord Mayor, Alderman Fiona Woolf who has kindly written the introduction to this booklet, to her Consort, Nicholas Woolf, and to the Livery Committee, who have just launched an interesting and useful new website at www.liverycompanies.info

I hope that this Masters Picture Book will be helpful to your enjoyment of the Ironbridge weekend, and that it will be of continuing use to you after that. And I hope I will have the opportunity to meet many of you in the year ahead.
